

Jacqueline Jenkins

A prophetic worship leader and teacher, songwriter/psalmist, published author, international speaker, and a Certified Christian Life Coach. She is also a member of the American Association of Christian Counselors (AACC). Most importantly, she is a "worshipper" one whom the Father seeks. It thrills her heart and brings great joy to her soul as she ministers leading others into the very presence of God.

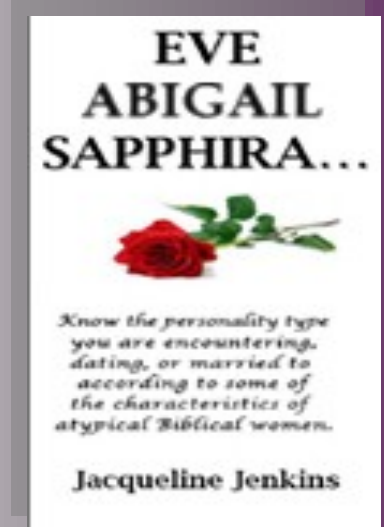

After waking from a dream perceived as a message from her deceased grandmother, Mayah Johnson's quest to reconnect with God begins. She soon realizes that this connection starts with membership at the 'right' church, so with divine inspiration and a trusty phonebook, Mayah selects seven churches to visit. These churches have similar traits to the seven churches in the book of Revelation; however, in today's vernacular...While visiting the seven churches, she encounters things she had never expected to find in church. $14

Publications:

Know the personality type you are attracted to, dating, married to, or encountering according to some of the characteristics of atypical Biblical men. Traits are non-gender specific; however, when you know the personality types and their common traits, as outlined in the Word, you will know how to relate to the individual. You will know exactly who you are dealing with and how to deal with them. $12

Know the personality type you are encountering, dating, or married to according to some of the characteristics of atypical Biblical women. The personality traits of 12 women are outlined in this book in accordance to the Word of God. Many will be amazed as they find their personality type in those listed. This book outlines both the positive and negative attributes of these women. As you read, you will uncover and/or affirm some things about not only those whom you associate with, but rather, things also about yourself. $13
